The Stanford/VA Alzheimer’s Center aims to better understand how adults use technology.

We hope to learn how adults:
- currently use technology
- learn to use new technology
- may benefit from using technology in their daily lives

Our goal is to develop tools to better help families cope with cognitive decline, Alzheimer’s disease, and related dementias.

Interested in volunteering to help us reach this goal?

Call us at (650) 858-3915