Mark Oldman is the founder of Bevinars (bevinars.com), a wine expert, award-winning wine author, television host, and entrepreneur. The New York Times has called him "one of the wine world's great showmen," and Bon Appétit described his style as "winespeak without the geek." He is the author of Oldman's Guide to Outsmarting Wine (Penguin), Oldman's Brave New World of Wine (W.W. Norton), and How to Drink Like a Billionaire (Simon & Schuster).

One of the country's top culinary speakers, Oldman has been a headliner at the Aspen Food & Wine Classic for the last twenty years. He is the creator of Stanford's Ingenious Entrepreneurship course and co-founded and ran Vault.com, a pioneering career information platform.

He graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Stanford with a BA, MA, and JD, and is a Stanford Trustee Emeritus.
