EDWIN COLLOFF, MD, FACP

CURRICULUM VITAE

EDUCATION:

1971 - 1975: Tufts Medical School, Boston -- MD degree

1975 - 1979: Maine Medical Center, Portland, Maine
Internship and Residency in Internal Medicine
Chief Medical Resident

1980 - 1981: Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston (18 months)
Fellow in Computer Applications in Medicine
Part-time physician in MGH Medicine Walk-In Clinic
Clinical Instructor for Harvard Medical School 2nd Year Medical Students

CLINICAL PRACTICE:

1981 - 1991: Private Practice of Internal Medicine, Burlingame, CA

1991 - 1997: Group practice, Camino Medical Group, Sunnyvale, CA

2000 - 2002: Kaiser-Permanente Medical Group, Santa Clara, CA (Part Time)

2002 – 2005: Kaiser-Permanente Medical Group, Redwood City, CA (Full time)

2005 – Present: Vaden Health Center, Stanford University, Stanford, CA

NON-CLINICAL WORK:

1997 – 1999: Clinical Content Product Manager, Oceania, Inc., Palo Alto, CA

2000 – 2002: Director Product Management, ePhysician, Mt. View, CA

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Stanford University School of Medicine
Clinical Instructor in Medicine (1998 – 2003)
Clinical Assistant Professor (2003 – Present)

Veteran's Hospital, Palo Alto, CA
Attending Physician, General Internal Medicine Clinic (2006 – Present)

Kaiser Permanente Medical Group, Redwood City, CA
Chairman, Continuing Medical Education Committee (2003 – 2005)

University of California San Francisco
Assistant Clinical Professor in Medicine (1983 - 1998)

Mt. Zion Hospital, San Francisco
Inpatient Ward Attending Physician for the Department of Medicine (1982 - 1996)

San Mateo County Medical Society
Chairman, Environmental Health Committee (1983 - 1989)
Member, Ad Hoc Committee on Computer Applications in Private Practice (1985)

San Mateo County Heart Association
Member, Board of Directors (1983 - 1990)
President (1987 - 1989)

San Mateo County Diabetes Association
Member, Board of Directors (1983 - 1986)

Mid-Peninsula Medical Group
Member, Board of Directors (1989 - 1990)

Peninsula Hospital Medical Center
Member, Medical Advisory Committee (1983 - 1990)
Member, Critical Care/CPR Committee (1988 - 1989)
Member, Adolescent Alcohol and Drug Rehabilitation Center Oversight Committee (1985 - 1988)
Member, Emergency Services Committee (1987 - 1988)

El Camino Hospital
Member, Computer Information Services Committee (1993 - 1997)
Member, Information Systems Technology Task Force (1994 - 1996)

Curriculum Vita – Edwin Colloff, MD

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS:

Fellow, American College Physicians-American Society for Internal Medicine

Member, California Medical Association

Member, San Mateo County Medical Society

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS:

Colloff E et al, Computer-Aided Localization Techniques for Stereotaxic Surgery, Confinia Neurologica 35:65, 1973

Cox PM Jr. and Colloff E, Neisseria Catarrhalis Empyema in an Immunodeficient Host (Letter), Am Rev Resp Dis 120:471, 1979

Mt. Zion Hospital Louis and Emila Bloch Lecture: Computer Applications in Clinical Diagnosis, presented August 29, 1980

Colloff E et al, Quality Assurance in a Computer-Based Outpatient Record, presented at the Fourth Annual Symposium on Computer Applications in Medical Care, Washington, D.C., November 5, 1980

Colloff E and Morris J, Developing an Interface Terminology to Capture the Clinical Encounter, presented at Toward an Electronic Patient Record '99, Orlando FL, May 4 1999

Colloff E, The Promise of Technology in the Management of the Patient with Diabetes, Diabetes Technology and Therapeutics, 2(1):91-99, 2000

BOARD CERTIFICATION: American Board of Internal Medicine, 1978