

Stanford

Cynthia Williams

Assistant Director, Industry Partnership, Precourt Institute for Energy

Bio

BIO

Cindy Williams is assistant director for industry partnerships at Stanford's Precourt Institute for Energy where she manages strategic corporate relationships across Precourt's multiple programs. Formerly, she served as Precourt's assistant director of external engagement, where she led Precourt's global policy, technology, and regional flagship programs. Prior to joining the Precourt Institute for Energy, she served under Stanford's vice president for public affairs, where she led corporate engagement efforts, served as the program lead for Stanford University's 125th Anniversary, and as co-producer of Stanford's major community outreach effort.

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Assistant Director, Net-Zero Alliance, Stanford Precourt Institute for Energy

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Excellence in Service - Community Service Award, Santa Clara County Fire Department (2017)
- Community Treasures Award, Stanford University (2008)

SERVICE, VOLUNTEER, AND COMMUNITY WORK

- Board Member (January 1, 2005)
- Executive Producer (6/1/2016)

Professional

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Member, Public Affairs Council (2010 - present)