Yeuen Kim
Adjunct Clinical Associate Professor, Medicine - Primary Care and Population Health

Bio

Dr Kim is a clinician-educator and contractor, Heluna Health working as a content lead at the SF Dept of Public Health, COVID19 task force, Info & guidance. She has worked in 3 SF bay area counties and the PA VAHCS. Her foci include population health including the built environment, re-entry, and homelessness, health information technology in safety net settings, and tolerance of ambiguity through art-gallery-based workshops and reflective writing. A proud grad of Brown University's PLME, she completed internal medicine and chief residency at the Santa Clara Valley Medical Center and a clinical research fellowship in the Division of General Internal Medicine/SFGH at UCSF, where she obtained a Master's in Advanced Studies and was nominated for a Kaiser Teaching award in 2008. Her goal is to make primary care practice sustainable in safety net settings.
