

Ivana Maric

Assistant Professor (Research) of Pediatrics (Neonatology)
Pediatrics - Neonatology

Ivana Maric is an Assistant Professor in the Pediatrics Department at the Stanford University School of Medicine. Her research focuses on applying machine learning to improving maternal and neonatal health. Her main focus has been on developing machine learning models for early prediction of adverse outcomes of pregnancy from omics and electronic health records data, that could guide development of low-cost, point of care diagnostic tools. Her main interest is in solutions that are applicable worldwide and especially in low-resource settings. Previously, her research focused on information theory, a mathematical discipline tightly related to statistics and machine learning. She is a recipient of the 2021 Rosenkranz Prize awarded for innovative work to improve health in low- or middle-income countries. She is also a co-recipient of the 2013 IEEE Communications Society Best Tutorial Paper Award.

She received BS degree from the University of Novi Sad, Serbia, MS and PhD at Rutgers University and postdoctoral training at Stanford University. She served as an Associate Editor for the IEEE Communications Letters from 2009 to 2012 and for the Trans. on Emerging Telecommunications Technologies from 2016 to 2018.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

- Assistant Professor (Research), Pediatrics - Neonatology
- Member, Bio-X
- Member, Maternal & Child Health Research Institute (MCHRI)

ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

- Faculty Affiliate, Stanford Center for Digital Health (CDH), (2026- present)
- Faculty Affiliate, King Center on Global Development, (2024- present)

HONORS AND AWARDS

- 2026 WSPR Best Global Health Abstract, Western Society for Pediatric Research (WSPR) (2026)
- 2025 Reckitt/Mead Johnson Junior Faculty Award, Western Society for Pediatric Research (WSPR) (2025)
- The Rosenkranz Prize, Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies and Stanford Health Policy, Stanford University (2021)
- IEEE Communications Society Best Tutorial Paper Award, IEEE (2013)

BOARDS, ADVISORY COMMITTEES, PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- Global Health Faculty Fellow, Center for Innovation in Global Health (CIGH) (2025 - present)
- Member, Society for Pediatric Research (SPR) (2024 - present)

- Member, Western Society for Pediatric Research (WSPR) (2024 - present)

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

- PhD, Rutgers University , Electrical Engineering (2006)
- Postdoctoral Scholar, Stanford University , Electrical Engineering (2010)
