BIO

Alexander Chin, MD, MBA, is a radiation oncologist with Stanford Medicine Cancer Center and a clinical associate professor in the Department of Radiation Oncology with the Stanford School of Medicine. He also serves as Executive Director of Market Development, Cancer Services for Stanford Health Care, acting as a liaison between faculty leadership and hospital administration, to advance Stanford Medicine's mission of providing compassionate leading-edge care to the communities that we serve.

Dr. Chin is committed to ensuring the delivery of care of the highest quality and value. He provides clinical expertise in diagnosing and treating the full range of cancers, including those of the lung, breast, and central nervous system. In addition, he serves on national leadership teams formed to advance the practice of cancer care. Dr. Chin is currently a member of the Payment Reform Task Force for the American Society of Clinical Oncology and has previously served on their Clinical Practice Committee and as a health policy fellow. He was one of just two oncologists in the US selected to participate in a year-long program on policy leadership.

He currently serves on the Stanford Cancer Network Quality Committee. This team develops and implements our care delivery standards, strategies, and metrics to ensure consistently excellent cancer care from all Stanford Health Care providers in all locations.

Dr. Chin has conducted extensive research and published his findings in numerous peer-reviewed journals. Topics range from novel oncology payment models to the use of new imaging parameters in lung cancer. His scholarship appears in Cancer, JCO Oncology Practice, Clinical Lung Cancer, International Journal of Radiation Oncology, Biology, Physics, and elsewhere.

He has made presentations on stereotactic body radiotherapy (SBRT) and other treatment advances at meetings of the Radiological Society of North America and American Society for Radiation Oncology. He also has addressed these topics as an invited lecturer in training sessions for oncology residents.

He has won numerous awards, including recognition for his research from the Radiological Society of North America. He also has earned honors from the American Society of Clinical Oncology and from his alma maters: the Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania as well as Wharton and Yale.

Dr. Chin earned a Bachelor of Science degree in molecular biophysics and biochemistry from Yale University. He earned his medical degree from Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, and his MBA at the Wharton School. He completed his residency in Radiation Oncology at Stanford Health Care.

He is a member of the Radiological Society of North America, American Society for Radiation Oncology, and American Society for Clinical Oncology.

CLINICAL FOCUS

- Radiation Oncology

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

- Clinical Associate Professor, Radiation Oncology - Radiation Therapy

ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

- Executive Director of Market Development, Cancer Services, Stanford Health Care, (2024- present)
- Director of Market Development, Stanford Health Care, (2019-2024)

BOARDS, ADVISORY COMMITTEES, PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- Member, Health Policy Committee, American Society of Clinical Oncology (2025 - present)
- Co-Vice Chair, Payer Relations Committee, American Society for Radiation Oncology (2024 - present)
- Member, Health Policy Committee, American Society for Radiation Oncology (2024 - present)
- Member, Coverage & Reimbursement Steering Group, American Society of Clinical Oncology (2022 - 2025)
- Member, Clinical Practice Committee, American Society of Clinical Oncology (2018 - 2019)
- Health Policy Fellow, American Society of Clinical Oncology (2017 - 2018)

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

- Residency: Stanford University Dept of Radiation Oncology (2019) CA
- Board Certification: Radiation Oncology, American Board of Radiology (2021)
- Internship: Santa Clara Valley Medical Center Internal Medicine Residency (2015) CA
- Medical Education: Perelman School of Medicine University of Pennsylvania (2014) PA
- MD, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine (2014)
- MBA, The Wharton School , Health Care Management (2014)
- BS, Yale University , Molecular Biophysics & Biochemistry (2009)
