Dr. Neugarten is a recognized healthcare leader and national expert at the crossroads of palliative care and emergency medicine. He has published widely in this field, and his initiatives focus on enhancing upstream palliative care accessibility, resource optimization in healthcare, and harnessing telemedicine's potential in providing care.

His contributions include co-chairing a national committee that fosters innovation by merging these fields, and he has received grant funding to study the impact of palliative care referral from the ED.

Dr. Neugarten also has an established footprint in medical education, having held multiple formal teaching roles throughout his career.
