Stanford

Chuhan Wang
Masters Student in Management Science and Engineering, admitted Winter 2019

Bio

BIO
Chuhan Wang is the founder of 996 Makers, and also serves as the Head of Global Strategy and IR at LAIX (NYSE: LAIX). Previously Chuhan worked as a venture capital investor at a multi-billion VC firm in San Francisco Bay Area and China. She began her career at Morgan Stanley in the Investment Banking Division and led many M&A and IPO transactions across the internet, mobile, e-commerce, software sectors, among others.