Stanford

Merry Pham

Director, Global Engagement and Program Strategy, Office of Community Engagement

Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Merry collaborates with campus partners in advancing global engagement, including supporting global and regional visitors such as educational institutions and local community members to connect with Stanford colleagues in mutual areas of work. Merry supports community resources as well as internal and external communications. She also manages operations for strategic projects including the Stanford community engagement hubs network, seed funding, and staffing for advisory groups.