

Takudzwa Adelino Caitano

Affiliate, Office for Religious & Spiritual Life

Bio

BIO

Takudzwa Caitano is a serial entrepreneur , software engineer and consultant from Zimbabwe. He is passionate about technology , entrepreneurship and the future and is on a mission to create a tech revolution in Africa. He is a Tony Elumelu Foundation Entrepreneur '19 , NextGen Fellow , Harvard Village To Raise A Child Finalist '17 and a Yale Young Global Scholar '16. He is also a Network Consultant for Shasha Network - a Pan-African education and consulting company founded in Zimbabwe. He also works with the CEO of Amigo-the fastest growing e-learning platform in Africa on growth and business development strategy. At Stanford , Takudzwa will be pursuing various interests such as Artificial Intelligence , Robotics , Economics , Education and Entrepreneurship.