Stanford

Béline Falzon

Assistant Director, Events, Precourt Institute for Energy

Bio

BIO

Born and raised in France, Béline Falzon has lived in the United States since 2015 and has worked at Stanford since 2022. Most recently, she was the Event Manager at the Stanford King Center on Global Development. A Certified Meeting Professional, she also volunteers for the Event Planners Practitioners Community on campus. In her free time, she enjoys crafting, playing board games, reading speculative fiction, and spoiling her two cats Juniper and Nutmeg.