Stanford

Sarah Sussman

AUL for Collections and Public Services, Humanities and Social Sciences, University Librarian's Office

Bio

BIO

I am the Assistant University Librarian for Collections and Public Services in the Humanities, Area Studies, and Social Sciences, responsible for strategic management of the following units of Stanford University Libraries: Humanities and Area Studies Resource Group, Social Science Resource Group, as well as the following branch libraries: Bowes Art and Architecture Library, Braun Music Library and ARS, Cubberley Education Library, and the East Asian Library. I also curate the rare and unique French and Francophone materials in special collections . I have been Stanford Libraries' Curator of French and Italian since 2002, when I finished my PhD in History (Modern Europe/France/Jewish History) at Stanford. From 2011-2026, I served as head of the Humanities and Area Studies resource unit, promoting the fabulous collections and expertise of my colleagues in these areas of study.

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

I am the Assistant University Librarian for Collections and Public Services in the Humanities, Area Studies, and Social Sciences, responsible for strategic management of the following units of Stanford University Libraries: Humanities and Area Studies Resource Group, Social Science Resource Group, as well as the following branch libraries: Bowes Art and Architecture Library, Braun Music Library and ARS, Cubberley Education Library, and the East Asian Library. I also develop and maintain Stanford University Libraries' collections of current, rare, and antiquarian materials in all formats in French and about France and its empire

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- PhD, Stanford University , European History (2002)
- MLS, Simmons College Graduate School of Library and Information Science , Library science and archives (1996)
- BA, UC Santa Cruz , History (1994)

Professional

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- chair, Western European Studies Section , Association of College and Research Libraries (2015 - 2016)
- Bibliographer, Recent monographs and dissertations, French Historical Studies, journal (2007 - present)

Publications

PUBLICATIONS

- Les collections francophones en Amérique du Nord BBF
  Sussman, S. B.
  2012: 26-31

- Jews from Algeria and French Jewish Identity Transnational Spaces and Identities in the Francophone World
  Sussman, S.
  Lincoln: Univ. of Nebraska Press.2009
- Cultural Sources for the Studies of Migration and Cultural Change in France Migrations In Society, Culture, and the Library: WESS European Conference, Paris, France, March 22, 2004
  Sussman, S.
  edited by Kilton, T. D., Birkhead, C.
  Chicago: Association of College and Research Libraries.2005