Stanford

Ugo Biggeri

Overseas Studies - Florence, Bing Overseas Studies

Bio

BIO

Ugo Biggeri is the representative for Europe of Global Alliance for Banking on Values, a global network of sustainable banks and also President of shareholders for change, the network of European institutional investors that promotes active shareholding on Environmental Social and Governance issues. He was among the founders of Banca Etica in Italy of which he was president up to 2019 (1,2 billion € portfolio credit) and up to 2023 also president of Etica Sgr (Investment managing company – 7 €billion of assets) .

He has a degree and PhD in physics, specialization in Sustainable Development (Trento) and in Business Management (Bocconi. Milano).

Since 2009 he is teaching Ethical Finance and Microcredit at the University of Florence

Always committed to the issues of social justice and ecology, both at family level and with his work, promoting actions and campaign with Italian NGOs.