Stanford

Inger Hultgren Meyer

Sr. Industrial Contracts Officer, Office of Technology Licensing (OTL)

Bio

BIO

Inger is a Senior Industrial Contracts Officer in the Industrial Contracts Office within Stanford's Office of Technology Licensing. She has over 14 years of experience as a lawyer at law firms and companies in the technology, health care, and consumer products industries in the U.S. and Europe. Before joining Stanford, Inger was an Associate General Counsel at Meta Platforms, Inc. where she advised Meta's research and engineering teams on IP and other issues arising out of academic collaborations and drafted and negotiated a variety of complex academic collaboration agreements with university partners. Inger holds a B.A. in Government from Cornell University and a J.D. from George Washington University Law School.