Stanford

Ludmille Lyvert

Ph.D. Student in Education, admitted Autumn 2025

Curriculum Vitae available Online

Bio

BIO

Ludmille Lyvert is an incoming PhD student in Education at the Stanford Graduate School of Education. Originally from Haiti, she earned her bachelor's degree in education from Université Quisqueya and completed a master's degree in Women's Studies at the University of Alabama in 2025 as a Fulbright Scholar.

With over five years of experience in education and non-profit work, Ludmille is committed to advancing equitable access to education and empowering communities through civic and human rights education. Her research focuses on the intersection of policy studies, program development, and civic and human rights education as a means to inspire social change, particularly in her home country, Haiti.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Recognition for Advancing Girls' and Women's Leadership, Fondation TOYA (2022)
- Grantee, Haitian Education and Leadership Program (2014-2018)
- Fulbright Grantee, Fulbright (2023-2025)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Advisor, HELP Alumni Association (2025 - present)
- National Youth Activist for Generation Equality, UN Women (2021 - 2022)
- Alumnus, Young Women Deliver (2023 - present)
- Secretary, International Students Association at UA (2024 - 2025)
- President, Caribbean Students Association at UA (2024 - 2024)
- Member, Triota (2024 - present)

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- MA, University of Alabama , Women's Studies (2025)
- BA, Université Quisqueya , Education (2021)

SERVICE, VOLUNTEER, AND COMMUNITY WORK

- Research Volunteer (6/30/2024 - 9/30/2024)
- Coordinator of Citizenship and Leadership Project (9/18/2017 - 6/30/2018)
- Coordinator of Matissant Project (9/30/2016 - 6/30/2017)

Research & Scholarship

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Civic Education
- Educational Policy
- Gender Issues
- International and Comparative Education
- Race and Ethnicity

Professional

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Graduate Teaching Assistant - University of Alabama (8/14/2024 - 5/2/2025)
- Project Officer - Fondation TOYA (9/19/2019 - 8/31/2022)
- Educational Support Assistant - La Petite Chenille (9/30/2018 - 8/31/2019)
- Mathematics Teacher - Les Apprentis Sages (1/31/2017 - 12/31/2017)
- Field Survey Agent for Educational Literacy Assessment - Universite Quisqueya (9/17/2018 - 10/31/2018)