

Tatiana Monserrat Miranda-Benavides

Ph.D. Student in Iberian & Latin American Cultures, admitted Autumn 2025

Bio

BIO

Tatiana Monserrat Miranda-Benavides studies literature and philosophy, with a focus on modern Latin American literature and early modern Iberian texts. She approaches these fields through existentialist frameworks to examine questions of subjectivity and temporality.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Distinguished Thesis Award, Humanities and Fine Arts, The Graduate School, University of Washington (2025)
- Full Tuition Scholarship "Política de Cuotas" at Pontifical Catholic University of Ecuador, SENESCYT (Secretaría de Educación Superior, Ciencia, Tecnología e Innovación) (2017-2022)

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- Ph.D., Stanford University , Student in Iberian & Latin American Cultures
- M.A., University of Washington , Hispanic Literary and Cultural Studies
- B.A., Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador , Communication, Literature Concentration

Publications

PUBLICATIONS

- Sueños y tiempo: Filosofía de María Zambrano en la poesía de Concha Méndez y la pintura de Remedios Varo
Miranda-Benavides, T.
University of Washington.
2025
- Filosofía del horror cósmico: Existencialismo en "The Colour Out of Space" y "The Dunwich Horror" de Howard Phillips Lovecraft
Miranda-Benavides, T.
Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador.
2022