Stanford

Tyson Fenay

MBA, expected graduation 2027

Bio

BIO

Tyson Fenay is the founder of Caradonna, an investor-operator of businesses and assets that can leverage applications of technology to build impactful and enduring companies.

Beyond his professional pursuits, Tyson also co-founded A Night in the Doghouse, one of Australia's largest community fundraisers, and currently serves on the board of Philanthropy Australia.

Tyson holds a Bachelor of Commerce and a Bachelor of Advanced Studies from the University of Sydney and is currently pursuing an MBA at Stanford Graduate School of Business.