

Stanford

Katherine P. Wu

Juris Doctor Student, Law

Bio

BIO

Katherine Wu earned All-American honors as an archery athlete while completing her neuroscience degree at Rice University. She is published in JAMA Oncology and Journal of Pediatric Ethics. Katherine is currently completing her JD at Stanford Law School where she serves as editor in chief of the Stanford Space & Policy Journal and editor of the Stanford Journal of Law, Economics & Business. She is a Pan-American Championships Gold medalist and serves on the Board of USA Archery and on the Olympic & Paralympic Dispute Resolution Committee for Team USA.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Pro Bono Distinction, Stanford Law School (2025)
- Phi Beta Kappa, Rice University (2023)
- Distinction in Research & Creative Works, Rice University (2023)
- All-American Athlete and All-American Academic Honors, USA Archery (2019-2023)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Team USA Athlete Representative (Archery), US Olympic & Paralympic Committee Athletes' Commission (2025 - present)

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- B.A., Rice University, Neuroscience (2023)

SERVICE, VOLUNTEER, AND COMMUNITY WORK

- Bar Association of San Francisco Intake Volunteer
- Housing Pro Bono Project Lead

Publications

PUBLICATIONS

- The President's Immunity Is Only as Strong as His Legal Authority
Wu, K. P.
JURIST.
2026
- Neuroimaging Evidence in Criminal Cases Center for Law and the Biosciences (CLB)
Wu, K. P.
2026

- A Narrative Experience with Adolescent Genetic Testing Journal of Pediatric Ethics
Wu, K. P., Ruth, A., Mahoney, D. P.
2024; 8 (1): 60-62
- The Weight of Inevitability-My Journey With BRCA2. JAMA oncology
Wu, K. P.
2023; 9 (11): 1497-1498