

Stanford

Vincent L. Briley

Affiliate, SGS Stanford Global Studies

Bio

BIO

Vincent L. Briley is a passionate leader and coach in community college education. He currently serves as the Interim Associate Dean of Student Affairs at Montgomery College - Rockville Campus, where he is dedicated to improving student access and outcomes. His extensive career includes administrative and instructional roles at Denison University, Eastern Iowa Community Colleges, and Cuyahoga Community College, with a focus on student success, academic affairs, and community engagement.

Briley has honed his leadership skills through prestigious professional development, including the American Association of Community Colleges' John E. Roueche Future Leaders Institute and the Peabody Professional Institute of Higher Education Management at Vanderbilt University. A champion of scholarship, he earned fellowships at Stanford University, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and multiple Fulbright awards focused on expanding international education.

Committed to his community, Briley volunteers with several local and national organizations and is a passionate musician who has performed with the Cleveland Orchestra. He is drawn to opportunities that allow him to serve institutions where students are central to the mission and vision.