Frank Campanaro's Bio:

I am a former Special Operations Military and Intelligence Agency professional, who founded and currently operates a market leading government contractor specializing in healthcare, infrastructure and national security. We've completed more than 10,000 government contracts as the market leader and raised over $100M in audited donations for our Military Charities.

Private sector industry includes an NYC based PE Fund (real estate investment); a nationally acclaimed real estate development and general contracting operation; a cascade of manufacturing pursuits from defense to healthcare, and a decent amount of M&A. I reside in Palm Beach County, south east Florida.
