Ansell Scott is a retired Navy SEAL transitioning to Stanford University for his undergraduate degree in engineering after 20 years of active-duty service. During his career, he served as a Lead Platoon Medic, Air Operations Trainer, and Lead Petty Officer of the Navy Parachute Team ("Leap Frogs"). He focuses on pairing technical problem-solving with the operational discipline and leadership developed over 15 years in Naval Special Warfare. Outside the classroom, Ansell is an avid aviator who enjoys learning new flying skills. He also enjoys volunteering and supporting his local community.
