

Winona Kang

Master of the Science of Law Student, Law

Bio

BIO

Winona's research interests include law and courts, religion, and evidence. She is particularly interested in how courts engage with beliefs and claims that resist conventional forms of legal proof, including those concerning religion and morality.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Bachelor of Laws (Honours Class I), The University of Leeds (06/29/2018)
- Hughes Dissertation Prize, The University of Leeds (07/2018)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Sheridan Fellow, National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law (2024 - present)

Publications

PUBLICATIONS

- Whose Voice?: Female Genital Cutting and the Obscuring Effects of Top-Down Criminalisation HUMAN RIGHTS LAW REVIEW
Kang, W.
2023; 23 (3)