

Piotr Slomianny

Affiliate, Graduate School of Business - Executive Education

Bio

BIO

Piotr Slomianny is Chief Financial Officer and Chief Information Officer at MPWiK Wrocław, a municipal water and wastewater utility in Poland. He brings more than a decade of senior leadership experience, combining expertise in finance, technology, and organizational transformation. He is also a certified EFQM assessor.

His experience includes leading digital transformation and commercializing technology solutions for the water and wastewater sector. He has also co-run a psychological care center and contributed to a startup developing tools to support therapists and patients.

Piotr is a member of the 2026–2027 Stanford Executive Program Flex cohort at Stanford Graduate School of Business.