

Stanford

Bonnie Michelle Zavon

Meeting Planner, Distinguished Careers Institute

Bio

BIO

Bonnie Zavon works for the Stanford Distinguished Careers Institute. Part of her role is Project Manager for The Nexel Collaborative (TheNexel.org), a not for profit alliance of college and university leaders promoting midlife transitions programs on campus.

From 1999 to 2016, Bonnie was the meeting planner, marketing communications, and public relations representative for HighWire Press, a tech department serving the scholarly research community, born out of the Stanford University Libraries. In 2017, Bonnie earned her Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) designation and has been working as a project manager and independent meeting planner ever since.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/bonniezavon/>

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Outreach and Meeting Planner for the Stanford Distinguished Careers Institute.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- CMP, Events Industry Council , Meetings and Event Planner (2017)
- BFA, York University , Film and Video Production, English Minor

SERVICE, VOLUNTEER, AND COMMUNITY WORK

- Event manager at OneBrick.org

Professional

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Former Board member: Committee Chair for Community Engagement, Society for Scholarly Publishing (2012 - present)