Stanford

Patrisha Cherry

Adm Svcs Admstr 1, Pediatrics - Neonatology

Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

As a Program Manager within the esteemed Department of Pediatrics, Neonatology Division, Patrisha Ann Cherry is entrusted with the pivotal responsibility of coordinating and facilitating programs vital to Maternal Health with the CMQCC Team. This role involves a multifaceted approach, requiring a keen eye for detail, strategic planning, and proactive problem-solving.

Key Responsibilities and Contributions:

Patrisha exhibits exceptional prowess in composing, drafting, and editing a wide array of documents. Whether it's presentations, grants, course handouts, or reports, she ensures accuracy and clarity, maintaining a high standard in all organizational communications.
Financial Transactions and Budget Oversight:

Educational Background:

Master of Public Health (MPH) from the University of California, Berkeley, Berkeley - May 2024

Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Social Actions
Palo Alto University, Palo Alto - September 2019

Professional Development:
Practicum - County of Santa Clara Office of Public Health (Maternal Health/Healthy Communities)

Additional Attributes:

Committed to the diversity, inclusion, equitable and respectful provision of care, and working with communities of color.