

Tammy Moriarty

Executive Director, PLEX, Ctr. Sup. Exc. in Teaching

Bio

BIO

Dr. Moriarty's work focuses on conducting professional development with high school teachers for CSET's Hollyhock Fellowship program as well as providing online coaching and support to teachers throughout the school year. Her experience includes being a secondary science teacher, a district science resource teacher, and school administrator. She holds a BS in Animal Physiology and Neuroscience from the University of California at San Diego, an MA in Educational Leadership from the University of San Diego, and a PhD in Leadership Studies, PK-12 Specialization from the University of San Diego. tmoriart@stanford.edu

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- PhD, University of San Diego , Leadership Studies, PK-12 Specialization
- MA, University of San Diego , Educational Leadership
- BS, University of California, San Diego , Animal Physiology and Neuroscience