

Vivienne Fong

Director of Programs and Faculty Affairs, SIEPR Operations

Bio

BIO

Vivienne Fong is the Director of Programs and Faculty Affairs at the Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research.

She was previously the Research Programs Director in Undergraduate Advising and Research, a unit within the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education (VPUE).

Vivienne earned a B.A. in English Language with honors from the National University of Singapore, and holds a Ph.D. in Linguistics from Stanford University. She held a faculty position at the National University of Singapore, and has also taught linguistics at New York University and Stanford University.

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Director of Programs and Faculty Affairs

LINKS

- Papers and publications: <http://web.stanford.edu/~vivienne/research/papers.htm>