Research & Scholarship

CURRENT RESEARCH AND SCHOLARLY INTERESTS

I am a general pediatric neurologist. My interest is in clinical diagnosis and treatment of common neurologic diseases in pediatric patients and teaching feature doctors, neurologists and pediatric neurologists about pediatric neurology.

Some of my other activities on campus include:

Preceptor for Neuro-Psychopharm Clinic , a collaborative clinic between pediatric neurology and child psychiatry to treat neurology patients with behavioral problems. Neuroscience Outpatient Clinic, LPCH at Stanford University and Medical Center.

Septemeber 2005 to present.

Faculty Advisor Co-SIGN, Stanford University Undergraduate interest group in Neuroscience.

Lecture series in neuroscience and a printed student run undergraduate journal highlighting neuroscience research on campus major accomplishments so far.

July 2005-present.
