Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD
Katie supports international initiatives for Stanford faculty and students as well as outreach efforts by various campus partners. Through collaboration with a team of stakeholders, Katie is developing and maintaining two Stanford platforms related to research and travel. The first, Stanford Off-campus Learning Opportunities (SOLO), aggregates opportunities available to Stanford students to gain experience through Stanford activities (research, internships, public service and so on). The second, Stanford Seed Funding (SSF), aggregates research and travel opportunities available to Stanford faculty. Katie is a Certified ScrumMaster (CSM) and Certified Scrum Product Owner (CSPO).
