Stanford

Mario Pamplona

Asst. Head, Access Services (User Experience & Privileges), University Libraries

Bio

BIO

Mario was born and raised in Southern California. He spent most of his young adult life in San Bernardino County, which he will always call home. Mario's undergraduate degree was in History, and earning a Master of Library and Information Science paved the way for their librarianship career. In their leisure time, he enjoys playing soccer, watching films and playing the guitar.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- M.L.I.S, San Jose State University , Library and information science
- B.A., University of La Verne , History