

Stanford

Kaitlynn R. Stinson

Library Specialist, School of Medicine - Lane Medical Library

Bio

BIO

Kaitlynn "Katie" Stinson is a Library Specialist at the Lane Medical Library. She is on the front lines at the library, working for the Access Services team. She is also a core member of the Marketing Communications Team, assists with the design of the Medical History Center exhibits, and provides logistical support for the library's media discussion groups.

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Library Specialist at Lane Medical Library

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- MLIS, San Jose State University , In progress
- B.A., University of Michigan , Latin American and Caribbean Studies (2011)

PROJECTS

- 2019 Medical History Exhibit - Adelaide Brown - a Stanford Medicine Pioneer - Lane Medical Library - Medical History Center
- 2020 Medical History Exhibit - Iga Mori - a Stanford Medicine Pioneer

Professional

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Student Member, Special Library Association (2020 - 2021)
- Student Member, American Library Association (2021 - present)

Publications

PRESENTATIONS

- "Before We Chat...": Creating an Online Tutorial Reviewing the Components of a Systematic Review - Medical Library Association (May 2019)