BIO

I am a Montrealer currently pursuing a JD-PhD in the Emmett Interdisciplinary Program in Environment and Resources and the Law School, where I am a Knight-Hennessy Scholar and a Pierre Elliott Trudeau Foundation Scholar. (I completed my JD in 2023.) I am broadly interested in the ways in which climate change science, policy, law, and advocacy interact and intersect.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- Master of Environmental Science, Yale University, School of Forestry and Environmental Studies (2018)
- Bachelor of Arts, Dartmouth College, Triple Major in Biology (Concentration Ecology), Environmental Studies, Senior Fellowship; Minor in Public Policy (2016)

Research & Scholarship

CURRENT RESEARCH AND SCHOLARLY INTERESTS

Leehi studies greenhouse gas inventories and how governments and corporations use (or misuse) scientific knowledge in climate law and policy. She is particularly interested in how these actors account for their greenhouse gas emissions and in the gaps between scientifically measured and politically accounted-for emissions.
