An aspiring environmental advocate and leader, Cathy Luo is a junior pursuing a B.A. in Economics and M.S. in Earth Systems. Academically, her interests range from carbon pricing to international climate finance. On campus, she is one of the current co-directors of Students for a Sustainable Stanford and serves as the undergraduate representative on Stanford's Scope 3 Working Group. At the Natural Resources Defense Council and Environmental Protection Agency, her work has been driven by a dedication to environmental justice and optimism for an equitable, sustainable world.
