

Stanford

Vasiliki Rahimzadeh

Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Biomedical Ethics

 Curriculum Vitae available Online

Bio

BIO

Vasiliki (Vaso) Rahimzadeh, PhD is an applied bioethics scholar with research interests at the intersection of precision medicine, data governance and public policy.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- David McCutcheon Pediatric Palliative Care Fellowship, McGill University Health Centre (09/2013-09/2014)
- Friends of McGill Fellowship (declined), McGill University (05/2014-05/2015)
- Vanier Canada Graduate Scholar, Canadian Institutes of Health Research (05/2016-05/2019)
- Best Poster Prize in Medicine and Public Health, American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) (05/2018)
- McGill Med Star Award, McGill University Faculty of Medicine (05/2019)

BOARDS, ADVISORY COMMITTEES, PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

- Member, Canadian College of Family Physicians (2018 - present)
- Trainee representative, Canadian Institutes of Health Research Standing Committee on Ethics (2017 - present)
- Member, American Society for Bioethics and Humanities (2013 - present)
- Member, Montreal Neurological Institute and Hospital (2017 - 2019)
- Chair, Dawson College Research Ethics Board (2016 - 2019)

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

- Doctor of Philosophy, McGill University (2019)
- Master of Science, McGill University (2014)
- Bachelor of Science, University of California Berkeley (2012)
- Phd, McGill University , Family Medicine and Primary Care Research (2019)
- MSc, McGill University , Experimental Medicine (2014)
- B.S., University of California Berkeley , Microbial Biology (2012)

STANFORD ADVISORS

- Mildred Cho, Postdoctoral Faculty Sponsor

LINKS

- Research website: www.projectpedigree.org