

Stanford

---

Mutallip Anwar

Lecturer

Writing and Rhetoric Studies

---

Bio

BIO

Mutallip Anwar completed his PhD in Language & Rhetoric at the University of Washington. Prior to joining PWR, he taught college writing courses at the University of Washington and Highline College. His primary teaching and research interests include rhetoric and composition studies, language education, discourse analysis, and translation.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

- Lecturer, Writing and Rhetoric Studies

---

Teaching

COURSES

2021-22

- PWR 6 Leland Scholars Program: Exploring Research, Writing and Argument at Stanford: PWR 6LSP (Aut)
- Writing & Rhetoric 1: The Power of Words: Rhetoric of Social and Technological Changes: PWR 1MA (Aut)
- Writing & Rhetoric 2: What's Your Major? An Interdisciplinary Approach to Research & Problem Solving: PWR 2MA (Win, Spr)

2020-21

- PWR 6 Leland Scholars Program: Exploring Research, Writing and Argument at Stanford: PWR 6LSP (Aut)
- Writing & Rhetoric 1: The Power of Words: Rhetoric of Social and Technological Changes: PWR 1MA (Aut)
- Writing & Rhetoric 2: What's Your Major? An Interdisciplinary Approach to Research & Problem Solving: PWR 2MA (Win, Spr)

2019-20

- Writing & Rhetoric 1: The Power of Words: Rhetoric of Social and Technological Changes: PWR 1MA (Aut, Win, Spr)