

Stanford

Michelle Arteaga, MS, MHA

Global Engagement Programs Manager, Anesthesiology, Perioperative and Pain Medicine

Bio

BIO

Program manager experienced working with academic medical centers in US and sub-Saharan Africa. Global education, legal background, and travel to 30+ countries. Highly skilled in curriculum development, partnership building, and strategic planning. Passionate about interdisciplinary learning and research in strengthening health systems.

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Global Engagement Programs Manager

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- MS, Northwestern University , Global Health (2017)
- MS, California State University, East Bay , Health Care Administration (2015)
- BA, University of California, Santa Barbara , Political Science-International Relations emphasis, Global Studies, minor in French (2010)

LINKS

- LinkedIn: http://www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=49242536&trk=nav_responsive_tab_profile

Professional

PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS

Global health equity; health policy; medical education; global health; sub-Saharan Africa; global surgery and anesthesia; global health management and administration; quality improvement; process improvement; diversity, equity and inclusion