

Stanford

Michelle (Duperrault) Arteaga, MS, MHA

Program Management Facilitator - Quality & Global Anesthesia, Anesthesia

Bio

BIO

Program manager experienced working with academic medical centers in US and sub-Saharan Africa. Global education, legal background, and travel to 30+ countries. Highly skilled in curriculum development, partnership building, and strategic planning. Passionate about interdisciplinary learning and research in strengthening health systems.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- MS, Northwestern University , Global Health (2017)
- MS, California State University, East Bay , Health Care Administration (2015)
- BA, University of California, Santa Barbara , Political Science-International Relations emphasis, Global Studies, minor in French (2010)

SERVICE, VOLUNTEER, AND COMMUNITY WORK

- Volunteer/Interpreter (4/2004)
- Community Volunteer (6/2004 - 8/2004)
- Administrative & Clinical Volunteer (6/2002 - 8/2005)
- Volunteer (6/2005 - 7/2005)
- Billing & Clinical Services Volunteer (3/2008 - 6/2009)

LINKS

- LinkedIn: http://www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=49242536&trk=nav_responsive_tab_profile

Professional

PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS

Healthcare reform, health policy, medical education, global health, sub-Saharan Africa, global surgery and anesthesia, global health management and administration