

Stanford

Zach Chandler

Director of Open Scholarship Strategy, Other Academic Support

Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

In collaboration with faculty and research teams, advances open science practices at Stanford and beyond. Data sharing, methods sharing, rigor & reproducibility, open access, open source software, persistent identifiers, &c. Represents Stanford at the HELIOS initiative and other fora. Identifies emerging centers of excellence, and helps good ideas achieve escape velocity. Curiosity, humility, and a thorough understanding of Joy's Law will be part of our success.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- CSPO, Scrum Alliance , Product Owner (2015)
- A.M., Duke University , East Asian Studies (2002)
- B.A., University of New Hampshire , Linguistics (1998)

PERSONAL INTERESTS

Open Science, Open Source, Open Access, Design Thinking, Service Design, Innovation, APIs, Drupal, BackdropCMS, Communities of Practice, Constructivism, Personal Learning Networks, Longboarding

LINKS

- Linked In: <http://www.linkedin.com/pub/zach-chandler/14/176/625>

Professional

PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS

Open Science, Open Source, Persistent Identifiers, PIDs, APIs, Service Design, Communities of Practice, Research

Publications

PUBLICATIONS

- Policy recommendations to ensure that research software is openly accessible and reusable. PLoS biology
McKiernan, E. C., Barba, L., Bourne, P. E., Carter, C., Chandler, Z., Choudhury, S., Jacobs, S., Katz, D. S., Lieggi, S., Plale, B., Tananbaum, G.
2023; 21 (7): e3002204