

Stanford

Kathryn Kerns

Cubberley Librarian, Education Library

Bio

BIO

I've worked at Ohio State University, Alfred University, and came to Stanford in 1988 to work in Meyer Library when it was an undergraduate library. I also worked in Green Library for a number of years first in General Reference and then later in the Information Center (six years as its head) before coming to Cubberley in 2006.

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

I am the Head of the Cubberley Education Library, which means selecting and managing the collections, helping students and faculty with research or finding information, and providing leadership for Cubberley.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- MLS, SUNY Buffalo , Information Science (1971)
- MA, SUNY Buffalo , History (1979)
- PhD, University of Pennsylvania , Education (1993)

Publications

PUBLICATIONS

- Antebellum Higher Education for Women in Western New York
Kerns, K. M.
1993
- Farmers' Daughters: The Education of Women at Alfred Academy and University before the Civil War The History of Higher Education Annual
Kerns, K. M.
1986; 6