

Tom Zimet

Graduate, Mechanical Engineering

Bio

BIO

I want to innovate solutions to the most pressing problems our society faces today. Whether it be through medical devices that improve treatment and patient care, more efficient vehicles and machines that reduce energy consumption, or novel products that reshape the way we live, I want to be able to improve people's lives and well-being.