

Stanford

Emma Adair

Clinical Research Manager, Neurosurgery

Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Emma manages the Neurology & Neurosurgery Clinical Trials Team consisting of 17 Clinical Research Coordinators conducting 70+ clinical trials in areas including: Device Neurosurgery, Functional Neurosurgery, Headache, Epilepsy, Neuroimmunology, Alzheimers/Memory Disorders, Parkinson's, Radiology, and Bio Banks.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- MPH, University of California Berkeley , Health Policy and Management (2021)
- BS, Carnegie Mellon University (2012)

PROJECTS

- DEFUSE3: Endovascular Therapy Following Imaging Evaluation for Ischemic Stroke 3 - Stanford University (December 1, 2015)

Professional

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Project Manager at Stanford Cognitive and Systems Neuroscience Lab - Stanford Psychiatry (2012 - 2015)