

Stanford

Alexis Manheim

AUL for Technical and Access Services, University Librarian's Office

Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

As the AUL for Technical and Access Services, I oversee the departments and work with the librarians and staff that are responsible for the acquisition, cataloging, access, and preservation of Stanford Libraries collections.

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- BA, New York University , History (1996)
- MLS and MA, Indiana University, Bloomington , Library Science and American History (1998)

Professional

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Assistant University Librarian for Technical and Access Services - Stanford Libraries (September 1, 2021 - present)
- Head, Acquisitions Department - Stanford Libraries (April 1, 2015 - August 31, 2021)
- Electronic Resources Librarian - Stanford Libraries (September 10, 2010 - March 31, 2015)
- Coordinator of Acquisitions and Cataloging - Millsaps-Wilson Library, Millsaps College (May 1, 2007 - August 31, 2010)
- Support Specialist - RLG Information Center, Research Libraries Group (August 1, 2003 - May 31, 2007)
- Law Librarian - San Francisco/Palo Alto Library, Baker and McKenzie (September 1, 2002 - July 31, 2003)
- Reference/Government Documents Librarian - Corning Community College (January 1, 1999 - July 31, 2002)