BIO

I am the Branch Library Specialist at the Harold A. Miller Library of Stanford University's Hopkins Marine Station in Pacific Grove. I have degrees in biology and library science and my current efforts entail researching the history of the Pacific Grove's Chautauqua Program (1880-1926), the history of the Hopkins Seaside Laboratory (1892-1917) and the early years of the Hopkins Marine Station (1918-1950), Edward F. Ricketts and Jack Calvin: The Publishing of Between Pacific Tides (1939), and The Hamilton Family: John Steinbeck Maternal Ancestors.
