

Stanford

Richenda Brim

Associate Director for Preservation, Preservation

Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

As the Associate Director for Preservation at Stanford Libraries I lead the preservation program for a network of 15 libraries holding a variety of formats. Through the complementary teamwork of two units, Collection Care and Conservation Services, the Preservation department stabilizes, repairs, houses, and prepares circulating collections, special collections and archives for storage, use, digitization, and exhibition.

Professional

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Member, American Institute for Conservation (2014 - present)
- Member, American Library Association, ACRL/Rare Books and Manuscripts Section and Core/Preservation and Reformatting Section (2002 - present)

Publications

PUBLICATIONS

- 2022 ALA-CORE National Binding Survey: Report of Findings
Chapman, J., Doyle, B., Ellenburg-Kimmet, T., Coulbourne, M., Brim, R.
American Library Association, Core, Preservation Administration Interest Group.
2023
- Final Report of the RBMS Climate Readiness Task Force
Becker, X., Brim, R., Cady, M., Calahan, S., Cooper, D., Czeblakow, A., Downing, K., Farwell, B. E., Freemont, R., et al
Climate Readiness Task Force of the Rare Books and Manuscripts Section (RBMS) of the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL), a division of the American Library Association (ALA).
2022
- Recentring the Bench Book and Paper Group Annual
Wahab, A., St.John, K., Brim, R.
2021; 40

PRESENTATIONS

- Exhibition Preservation Checklist: Caring for your collections on display - ACRL Presents Webcasts (April 22, 2019)