CURRENT RESEARCH AND SCHOLARLY INTERESTS

My mission is to increase access to evidence based psychotherapy. The main problem areas I treat are Anxiety, OCD, Tic Disorders/Tourette's, PTSD and Trauma, Depression, Oppositional Behavior in children, and Bipolar Disorder. I work primarily with children, teens, young adults, families, and parents. I founded the Time Limited Care Clinic and co-founded the Crisis Clinic in Stanford's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Division. I train clinicians across the US in evidence based interventions.
