

Stanford

Kimya Stidum

Community Coordinator, Res Ed Central Management

Bio

CURRENT ROLE AT STANFORD

Kimya L. Stidum is the Education Program Coordinator in the Division of Primary Care and Population Health. She works with various faculty to manage the Division's continuing medical education series, pre-clinic teaching modules, and family medicine course administration. Kimya also manages the education sections of the PCPH website and Intranet and is the lead creator of the PCPH quarterly newsletter.