

Tom Langenstein

CURRENT / RECENT POSITIONS:

Program Manager

*Accelerator on a Chip
International Program (ACHIP)*

Executive Director

Stanford Center for Position, Navigation and Time (SCPNT)

Program Manager

Fermi – LAT Space Telescope

Deputy Program Manager

Gravity Probe B Program (GP-B)

CONTACT:

Durand Building, Room 371
496 Lomita Mall, Stanford University
Stanford, CA 94305-4035

tom.langenstein@stanford.edu
office: 650.723.4108
cell: 650.823.4906

STANFORD EXPERIENCE:

Program Manager – Accelerator on a Chip International Program (ACHIP) – Stanford's Applied Physics Lab – '15 to present -- <https://sites.stanford.edu/achip/>

Program Manager – Fermi Gamma-ray Space Telescope Program – Stanford's Hansen Lab's - '07 – present - <http://www-glast.slac.stanford.edu/>

Executive Director – Stanford Center for Position, Navigation and Time – Stanford's Aero-Astro Department - '05 - Present – <http://scpnt.stanford.edu>

Deputy Program Manager, Business & Mission Operations Manager - Gravity Probe B Program, Stanford's Hansen Labs, '84 – Present - <http://einstein.stanford.edu/>

EXPERTISE: Extensive technical and management expertise with responsibilities for performing and/or supervising:

Program Management
Finances, Budgeting, Proposals
Contracts, Subcontracts & Procurements
Human Resources
Research Administration
Infrastructure Development
Manufacturing Processes & Procedures
Facilities, Property and Security

Export Control Regulations (ITAR)
Spacecraft Mission Operations
Computing Resources & System Admin
Planning and Scheduling
Public Relations, Education and Public Outreach
Website Development
Fundraising
Symposium / Conference Production

EDUCATION: San Jose State University - Bachelor of Science - Industrial Engineering
San Francisco State University - Graduate coursework towards MBA
Stanford University - Advanced Program Management Courses