Edited Books

2021 Digital Technology and Democratic Theory, University of Chicago Press.

Co-edited with Hélène Landemore and Lucy Bernholz, this volume gathers scholars from philosophy, social science, and engineering to explore the implications of digital technology for democratic theory and practice. I am the co-author of the introduction. Contributors: Joshua Cohen, Archon Fung, Hélène Landemore, Lucy Bernholz, Seeta Gangadharan, Robyn Caplan, Melissa Schwartzberg, Henry Farrell, Mike Ananny, David Lee, Margaret Levi, John Seely Brown, Julia Cagé, and Bryan Ford.

2016 Philanthropy in Democratic Societies, University of Chicago Press

Growing out of an 18-month long seminar hosted at Stanford, this co-edited volume (with Chiara Cordelli and Lucy Bernholz) gathers scholars from philosophy, political science, law, sociology, and history and produces a multi-disciplinary inquiry about the role of philanthropy in democracy. I am co-author of the introductory chapter and single author of a chapter in the volume. Other contributors: Jonathan Levy, Olivier Zunz, Lucy Bernholz, Aaron Horvath, Walter Powell, Paul Brest, Ray Madoff, Eric Beerbohm, Ryan Pevnick, and Chiara Cordelli.

Reviewed in Wall Street Journal, Stanford Social Innovation Review, Journal of Public and Nonprofit Affairs, Perspectives on Politics, Nonprofit and Voluntary Sector Quarterly, Economics and Philosophy, Alliance Magazine, La Vie des Idées.

Arabic translation published 2022.

2013 Education, Justice, and Democracy, University of Chicago Press.

Co-edited volume (with Danielle Allen) focusing on intersections between normative and empirical approaches to the study of and purpose of education. I am co-author of the introductory chapter and single author of a chapter in the volume. Contributors: Helen Ladd, Susanna Loeb, Rob Reich, Anthony Laden, Sigal Ben-Porath, Angel Harris, Marcelo Suarez-Orozco and Carola Suarez-Orozco, Gregory Walton, Richard Rothstein, Harry Brighouse and Adam Swift, Patrick McGuinn, Anna Maria Smith, and Seth Moglen.

The book was awarded the 2013 PROSE Award for the best book in education. The PROSE Awards annually recognize the very best in professional and scholarly publishing by bringing attention to distinguished books, journals, and electronic content in over 40 categories. Judged by peer publishers, librarians, and medical professionals since 1976, the PROSE Awards are extraordinary for their breadth and depth

2013 Occupy the Future, MIT Press/Boston Review

Co-edited volume (with David Grusky, Doug McAdam, and Debra Satz) produced in the wake of the Occupy movement that examines the consequences of severe inequality for democracy and identifies reforms that could bring democratic institutions in closer alignment with democratic ideals. I co-wrote the introduction and chapter on Ethics and Inequality. Contributors: Kenneth Arrow, David Grusky and Erin Cumberworth, Rob Reich and Debra Satz, Kim Weeden, Sean Reardon, Prudence Carter, Shelley Correll,

Gary Segura, David Laitin, Cristobal Young and Charles Varner, Doug McAdam, Paul Ehrlich and Anne Ehrlich, Donald Barr, Michele Elam and Jennifer DeVere Brody, H. Samy Alim, and David Palumbo-Liu.

2009

Toward a Humanist Justice: The Political Philosophy of Susan Moller Okin, Oxford University Press

Co-edited (with Debra Satz) volume of essays on the work of Susan Moller Okin. I am co-author of the introductory chapter on Okin's work and the nature of the volume. Contributors: Nancy Rosenblum, Joshua Cohen, Elizabeth Wingrove, John Tomasi, David Miller, Molly Lynn Shanley, Cass Sunstein, Ayelet Shachar, Allison Jaggar, Chandran Kukathas, Robert Keohane, and Iris Marion Young.

Stanford Summer Philosophy Discovery Institute

Founder and Co-Director

- 1999-2004 Created and co-direct a residential summer philosophy program for high school students.
- Provides high school students an introduction to philosophy with the long-run goal of increasing enrollment, especially minority enrollment, in college-level philosophy courses.
 - Institute attracted applicants from across the United States and from Canada, Europe, and Asia in its first year; it has quadrupled in size since 2000, and enrolled 100 students.

Hope House Scholars Program

Co-Founder and Instructor

2001-present

- Designed and helped to implement a new program to provide Humanities courses to low income members of the communities surrounding Stanford. Course began at Hope House, a residential substance abuse facility for women in Redwood City, CA, in April 2001.
- Awarded (with Debra Satz) the 2010 Stanford University Miriam Aaron Roland Volunteer Service Prize, recognizing "Stanford faculty who engage and involve students in integrating academic scholarship with significant and meaningful volunteer service to society."
