PROFESSIONAL WORK

High School Educational Advisor 2015 – 2016
 San Francisco College Access Center
 Japanese Community Youth Council (JCYC)
San Francisco, CA

I managed a caseload of 125 students who identify as low-income and/or first generation bound college students as well as recently immigrated, AB540, and Deferred Action for Early Childhood Arrivals (DACA) students at Mission Senior High School. My duties included college preparation, application, scholarship, and financial aid workshops and assistance to students, faculty, administration, and parents. Furthermore, I organized college campus field trips and on-site events such as Cash for College. I also referred students to various services in San Francisco including jobs and internships through Youthworks and Mayor's Youth Employment & Education Program (MYEEP). I managed an $18,000 operating budget.

Youth Board Consultant 2012 - 2013
 California School Based Health Alliance (CSBHA)
Oakland, CA

CSBHA is a non-profit organization that aims to increase the number of school-based health centers in California and provide technical support to existing sites in the state and across the nation. The Youth Board Consultant position works directly under the Project Coordinator and supports Youth Board in their Youth-2-Youth (Y2Y) sites. Furthermore, the Youth Board Consultant coordinates with other Youth Board members for the annual Y2Y Conference.

Youth Board Member 2009 – 2012
 California School Based Health Alliance (CSBHA)
Oakland, CA

Youth Board (YB) is a group of college students across California who supports the on-going efforts of CSBHA's Youth-2-Youth (Y2Y) program. YB provides technical support in youth engagement, health education programs, and community organizing. YB presents in various conferences and has led the youth track for CSBHA's Annual Statewide Conference and the National Assembly on School-Based Health Care in Washington, D.C. YB members are assigned to a Y2Y site annually, in 2010, I worked with the West Contra Costa Unified School District in establishing a School-Based Health Center Bill of Rights. From 2011-2012, I trained and worked with youth researchers in Cesar Chavez High for their Community Based Participatory Research in teen pregnancy prevalence, which we presented, at CSBHA Statewide Conference and the American Public Health Association Annual Meeting 2012.

Undergraduate Paid Employment

Holistic Retention Coordinator

2012 – 2013

BRIDGE: Pilipin@ Outreach & Retention
Student Recruitment & Retention Center (SRRC)

University of California, Davis

BRIDGE seeks to address the underrepresentation of Filipino Americans in the higher education system through various efforts such as weekly high school outreaches, on-campus retention programs, and various workshops and conferences. I managed 12 interns during the academic year in developing programs and implementing services to support the holistic success of Filipina/o American students at UC Davis. I spearheaded several, now institutionalized, university-wide events such as Demystifying AP/SD that brought together several departments on campus ranging from student resources to college-specific and financial aid advisors. The quarterly event had a total of over 500 student attendees. Moreover, I provided one-on-one support to multiple students who were on academic probation and subject to dismissal and managed a $5,000 budget.

Community Mentorship Outreach Coordinator

2011 – 2012

BRIDGE: Pilipin@ Outreach & Retention
Student Recruitment & Retention Center (SRRC)

University of California, Davis

The Community Mentorship Outreach Coordinator outreaches to underrepresented high schools in the Sacramento, Fairfield, and Vallejo area weekly. I led workshops on topics related to higher education, financial aid, social justice, and cultural issues. I also co-coordinated the annual Pilipino Youth Conference, a 3-day retreat where we hosted over 100 hundred high school students at UC Davis. I managed a $10,000 operating budget.

INTERNSHIP/VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Volunteer

2018 – 2020

Matahari Women Worker's Center
Boston, MA

As a volunteer I assisted with data collection, management, and analysis on various surveys, policies, and information disseminated to members, supporters, academic and non-profit organizations, and media, prepare and publish social media materials, plan and assist in numerous events, programs, and services such as the annual membership general meeting, worker's rights training, etc. I also translated numerous documents and materials in Tagalog for their Tagalog members, partner organizations, and the media.

Macro Social Work Intern

2017 – 2018

Boston GLASS

Justice Resource Institute (JRI)

Roxbury, MA

As a macro social work intern I organized programs for our clients in the drop-in center which included a panel of speakers for the Love is Love: Navigating Healthy LGBTQ+ Relationships and a five-session workshop, Freedom School for LGBTQ+ Youth of Color with Demita Frazier. In addition, I also coordinated the Connect2Protect (C2P) coalition consisted of over 200+ HIV service providers in the Greater Boston Area committed to integrating racial justice work. My other duties also included managing and analyzing client surveys and databases.

Social Work Intern

2016 – 2017

Southern Jamaica Plain Health Center

Brigham and Women's Hospital

Jamaica Plain, MA

I helped coordinate and facilitate weekly programs including JP Fit, Healthy Moms, Nuestra generación (Our Generation), and Comunidad en Acción (Community in Action). Additionally, I managed Liberation in the Exam Room, a collective group of physicians, clinicians, and organizers who are integrating racial justice work in healthcare services, through coordinating meetings, writing and sending meeting minutes, and assisting in creating tools for dissemination.

Teacher, Balboa High School

2014 – 2015

Pin@y Educational Partnerships (PEP)

San Francisco, CA

PEP is a nonprofit organization. PEP is a service-learning program that has created a "partnership triangle" between the university, public schools, and the community to develop a counter-pipeline that produces critical educators and curriculum at all levels of education and in the community. As a PEP teacher, I taught critical ethnic studies with a focus on Filipina/o and Filipina/o American experience catered to high school students.

Public Health Intern

April – August 2014

Asian Pacific Partners for Empowerment, Leadership, &amp; Advocacy (APPEAL)

Oakland, CA

APPEAL is nonprofit organization that serves Asian Pacific Islander populations on various health issues such as tobacco cessation, healthy eating, and active living through capacity building training, community-based research, and other forms of support. As an intern, I researched and created a repository of existing health programs as well as conducted my own research through Stanford University in addressing the use of e-cigarettes amongst Asian Pacific Islander young adults. The study was published in a peer-reviewed journal.

Northern California Intern

2013

Health Career Connection (HCC)

Oakland, CA

HCC is a non-profit organization that matches college students with a public health sector to help them further their experience and skills in the field of public health for a 10-week program in the summer. I was chosen in the top 1% of applicants with a guaranteed placement site with Youth UpRising (YU).

Community Economic Development Intern

July – September 2013

Youth UpRising (YU)

Oakland, CA

YU is a non-profit organization located in East Oakland that provides a variety of services and support to the community ranging from media, performance arts, job opportunities, education, internship, and organizing. At YU, I worked with three groups of youth researchers. Two groups worked on a 7-week research project focusing on safety and gun violence and art as a means to boost the economic stability of East Oakland that they presented to councilmembers in Oakland's City Hall. The other team led the first youth-led Health Impact Assessment (HIA) in the nation to establish a learning academy in Castlemont High School.

Health, Education, & Promotion (HEP)

2010 – 2011

Student Health & Wellness Center

University of California, Davis

HEP promotes various health programs on campus focusing on various aspects of health ranging from mental, physical, emotional, nutrition, sexual, and reproductive health. I participated in weekly outreach efforts such as leading Wellness Jeopardy in the weekly Farmer's Market at UC Davis, led demonstrations on how to use various sexual health contraceptives such as male and insertive condoms and dental dams, and organized the annual Wellness Carnival.
